IRVINE HOUSING ASSOCIATION LIMITED

RULES

NAME, OBJECTS AND REGISTERED OFFICE

1. The name of the Society shall be Irvine Housing Association Limited (hereinafter called "the Association").
2. The objects of the Association shall be to operate for the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage through:
  - (i) the provision, construction, improvement and/or management of land and accommodation;
  - (ii) the provision of care; and/or
  - (ii) any other objects or purposes allowed under Section 58 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2001 (as amended by the Housing (Scotland) Act 2006 and the Registered Social Landlords (Purposes or Objects) (Scotland) Order 2006) which is charitable both for the purposes of Section 7 of the 2005 Act and also Section 505 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988.
3. Our permitted activities and powers will include anything which is necessary, incidental, conducive and/or expedient to help us achieve the objects set out in rule 2.
4. In furtherance of its objects the Association shall as landlord or managing agent have a proper regard to the requirements of public accountability, to the proper use of public or other monies loaned, granted or gifted to or held by it, to the welfare of the tenants or occupiers of the dwellings provided or managed by it.
5. Subject and without prejudice to the terms of rule 3, the Association shall not trade for profit.
6. The registered office of the Association shall be at 44-46 Bank Street, Irvine and notice of any change in the situation of the registered office shall be sent by the Secretary to the Financial Conduct Authority in the form prescribed by Treasury Regulations and to The Scottish Housing Regulator within fourteen days thereof.

MEMBERSHIP

7. (a) The members of the Association shall be those persons who hold a share in the Association and whose names appear in the register of members and the Parent Member.
- (b) The Parent shall apply for a share in terms of these rules and shall make payment to the Secretary at the registered office of the Association of the sum of £1.00. The Parent shall then become a member of the Association and its name shall be entered in the register of members under the category of "Parent Member" within seven days and shall be issued with a share to the value of £1.00 (the "Parent Share") in the Association.

8. Any ordinary member who changes his main residence is required to furnish in writing to the Association's registered office once within three calendar months of such change the address of such new main residence or registered office.
9. No ordinary member shall hold more than one ordinary share in the Association.
  - (a) An applicant for ordinary membership shall forward to the registered office together with his application the sum of one pound (which shall be returned to him if the application is not approved) and every application shall be considered by the Board at its next meeting after it is made, or so soon thereafter as it is practicable.
  - (b) If the application is approved, ordinary membership shall take effect from that time and within seven working days the name of the applicant shall be entered in the register of members and one share in the Association shall be issued to the applicant.
  - (a) A person shall not be admitted to ordinary membership if he is under the age of eighteen years or such other age for attaining full age as may from time to time be prescribed by statute for the purposes of any rule of law, except that a tenant of the Association who has at least attained sixteen years of age may be admitted to ordinary membership.
  - (b) While it is the Association's intention to encourage membership, the Board has absolute discretion in deciding applications for membership and the following shall constitute grounds for refusal of an application for membership:
    - (i) where membership would be contrary to these rules or the Association's policies;
    - (ii) where a conflict of interest may exist which, even allowing for the disclosure of such an interest, may adversely effect the work of the Association; or
    - (iii) where the Board considers that accepting the application would not be in the best interests of the Association.
12. An ordinary member representing an organisation shall for all purposes be treated as an individual member but shall have entered against his name in the register of members the name of the organisation which he represents.

SHARE CAPITAL

13. The share capital of the Association shall be raised by the issue of ordinary shares of the value of one pound each to ordinary members and the "Parent Share" to the Parent.
14.
  - (a) Shares shall carry no right to interest, dividend or bonus and shall not be held jointly.
  - (b) Ordinary shares shall not be withdrawable but shall be transferable with the consent of the Board in manner provided hereafter for the transfer of loan stock so far as applicable.
  - (c) On the death, expulsion or withdrawal from the Association of an ordinary member, the ordinary member's share shall be cancelled and the amount paid up thereon shall become the property of the Association. If an ordinary member who represents an organisation dies or advises the Association that he can no longer participate in its affairs, such body may request that the share be transferred to another person

- representing that body in accordance with paragraph (b) of this rule.
- (d) The Parent Share may not be sold or transferred but may, on the written request of the Parent, be cancelled in the same manner as ordinary shares.

WITHDRAWAL FROM MEMBERSHIP

15. (a) Any ordinary member may withdraw from the Association by giving to the Secretary one month's notice in writing of his intention to do so.
- (b) (i) Where the Board is satisfied that:-
- (A) an ordinary member has failed to notify the Association of a change in main residence as required under rule 8, or
  - (B) an ordinary member has failed to either attend or submit apologies for five consecutive annual general meetings, or
  - (C) an ordinary member ceases to fall within the definition or membership criteria of his membership category, or
  - (D) an ordinary member has become an employee of the Association
- that member shall be deemed to have withdrawn from membership of the Association and his ordinary share shall be cancelled and the amount paid thereon shall become the property of the Association with effect from the passing of a resolution by the Board to that effect.
- (ii) In circumstances where an ordinary member, who is a tenant of the Association, changes his main residence by way of transfer or exchange of tenancy, he shall be deemed to have given the required notification under rule 8.
- (iii) All cancellations of shares pursuant to rule (b)(i) hereof shall be recorded in the register of members.

EXPULSION OF MEMBERS

16. (a) An ordinary member may be expelled by a resolution carried by the votes of two-thirds of the ordinary members present in person or by proxy and voting on a poll at a special general meeting of the Association of which notice has been duly given, provided that a complaint in writing of conduct detrimental to the interests of the Association has been communicated to him by the Secretary not less than one calendar month before the meeting. Such complaint shall contain particulars of the conduct complained of and shall call upon the member to answer the complaint and to attend the meeting called under this rule. At the meeting the ordinary members shall consider evidence in support of the complaint and such evidence as the member may wish to place before them. If on due notice having been served upon him the ordinary member fails to attend the meeting without adequate reason being provided the meeting at its discretion may proceed in his absence.
- (b) No person who has been expelled from ordinary membership shall be re-admitted except by resolution carried by the votes of two-thirds of the ordinary members present in person or by proxy and voting on a poll at any general meeting of which notice has been duly given.

- (c) Where a Board member ceases to be a Board member pursuant to rule 42.2, that Board member's ordinary share shall if the majority of the Board members so determine be cancelled and his ordinary membership ended. The value of that Board member's ordinary share shall then belong to the Association.

REPRESENTATIVE OF ORGANISATION

17. The ordinary membership of an individual representing an organisation in terms of rule 12 shall cease on the death, resignation, expulsion (in terms of rule 16) or withdrawal (in terms of rule 15) of the individual representing such organisation. An organisation which is represented in terms of rule 12 may by resolution of its governing body revoke the appointment of any person who is its representative. A copy of such resolution shall be sent to the Secretary of the Association. The organisation's representation through that individual and that individual's ordinary membership of the Association under rule 12 shall cease with effect from the date of the resolution of the governing body.

BORROWING POWERS

18. (a) The Association shall have the power to borrow money for the purposes of the Association provided that:
- (i) at the time of borrowing the sum of the amount remaining undischarged of monies borrowed and the amount of the proposed borrowing shall not exceed £100 million; and
  - (ii) for the purposes of this rule the amount remaining undischarged at the time of borrowing of any index-linked monies borrowed by the Association or on any deep discounted security shall be deemed to be the amount required to repay such borrowing in full if such borrowing became repayable at that time and the amount of any proposed borrowing intended to be index-linked or on a deep discounted security shall be deemed to be the net proceeds of such proposed borrowing receivable by the Association at the time of borrowing.
- (b) The Association will not pay more than the market rate of interest as determined by the Board having regard to the terms of the loan on any money borrowed by the Association.
- (c) The Association shall not receive money on deposit.
- (d) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this rule the Board shall have power to determine from time to time the terms and conditions upon which money is borrowed or loan stock is issued and to vary such terms and conditions.
19. (a) The Association shall have the power to enter into and perform a Rate Cap Transaction, or series of Rate Cap Transactions, or to enter into a Collar Transaction or series of Collar Transactions or an Interest Rate Swap Transaction where in relation to any such Transaction the following conditions are satisfied, namely that:-
- (i) the relevant instruments relate solely to amounts denominated in Sterling;
  - (ii) the relevant transaction provides (in the case of an interest rate swap) for the Association to undertake to pay a specified fixed rate on an applicable notional sum denominated in Sterling, but not otherwise;

- (iii) the relevant transaction in the case of a Collar Transaction provides for the simultaneous buy of an instrument relating to a rate cap and the selling of an instrument providing for a floor at a lower strike price to such Cap;
- (iv) any counter-party to the transaction is one of the principal clearing banks in the United Kingdom;
- (v) the Board or a duly authorised Committee of the Board established under the rules considers the entry by the Association into such transaction(s) to be in the best interests of the Association.

PROVIDED that at the time of entry into any such transaction(s) the sum of the Calculation Amount of any such transaction previously entered into and remaining in effect and the Calculation Amount of the proposed transaction(s) shall not exceed (i) the aggregate amount of the Association's Variable Rate Borrowings either at the Effective Date or (ii) having regard at the Effective Date to the Association's obligations to repay Variable Rate Borrowings, the amount of the Variable Rate Borrowings which will be outstanding at any time on or prior to the proposed Termination Date.

- (b) Before exercising its power under rule 19.(a) the Association shall obtain and consider proper advice on the question whether the transaction is satisfactory having regard to:-
  - (i) the possible fluctuations in the rate of interest payable by the Association on its Variable Rate Borrowings during the term of the relevant transaction;
  - (ii) the Association's ability to meet its payment obligations under such Borrowings during the term of the relevant transaction(s) if such transaction(s) was or were not entered into;
  - (iii) the payment obligations under the relevant transaction(s); and
  - (iv) the Association's actual and projected annual income and expenditure position.
- (c) For the purposes of rule 19.(b) proper advice shall mean the advice of a person who is reasonably believed by the Board to be qualified in his ability in the practical experience of financial matters and such transactions, such advice may be given by a person notwithstanding that he gives it in the course of his employment as an officer.
- (d) A person entering into a relevant transaction as a Floating Rate Payer with the Association who has received a written certificate signed by the Secretary confirming the Association's compliance with rules 19.(a) and 19.(b) shall not be concerned to enquire whether or not the Association has complied with the provisions of rules 19.(a) and 19.(b) and such transaction shall be valid at the date it is entered into and throughout its term in favour of such person (or any assignee or successor in title) whether or not the provisions of rules 19.(a) and 19.(b) have been complied with.

For the purpose of this rule:

"Calculation Amount", "Effective Date", "Floating Rate Payer", "Term", and "Termination Date" have the respective meanings given in the 1991 ISDA Definitions as amended from time to time:

"Variable Rate Borrowings" means any borrowing by the Association pursuant to rule 19.(a) in respect of which the rate of interest has not been fixed for a term in excess of twelve months and the term "fixed" shall exclude any borrowing where the rate of interest is indexed in accordance with a retail price index or other published index.

"Rate Cap Transaction", "Collar Transaction" and "Interest Rate Swap Transaction" mean respectively any transaction designated within the meaning of the category "Swap Transaction" as defined in the 1991 ISDA Definitions as amended from time to time.

20. (a) The holder of loan stock may transfer all or any part thereof by instrument in writing in such form as the Board may approve.
- (b) The instrument of transfer shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferer and transferee and properly stamped, and upon delivery thereof at the registered office together with the sum of five pence, the certificate of the loan stock and such evidence of identity or title as the Board may reasonably require, the transfer shall be registered.
- (c) A transfer of loan stock shall not be valid until registered.

GENERAL MEETINGS

21. The Association shall within six calendar months after the close of each financial year of the Association hold a general meeting which shall be called the annual general meeting. The functions of the annual general meeting shall be:-
  - (a) To receive the Chairman's report on the affairs of the Association for the preceding year.
  - (b) To receive the accounts and balance sheet together with the report of the auditor thereon.
  - (c) To elect Board members as provided in rule 40.
  - (d) To appoint the auditor as provided in rules 71, 72 and 73.
  - (e) To transact any other general business of the Association included in the notice convening the meeting.
22. (a) All general meetings other than annual general meetings shall be called special general meetings. They shall be convened by the Secretary either:-
  - (i) upon an order of the Board or,
  - (ii) upon a written requisition signed for and on behalf of the Parent or signed by not less than four ordinary members or, if the total number of ordinary members at any time exceeds forty, by one-tenth of such ordinary members,stating the purpose for which the meeting is to be convened.
- (b) Where a special general meeting is called for by a written requisition, the Secretary of the Association shall be under a duty to convene the meeting in accordance with paragraph (c) of this rule and without prejudice to said duty shall in consultation with the Board or the Chairman if practicable but if such consultation is not practicable at his own discretion, decide the time, date and place for the meeting.

- (c) Such meeting shall be held within twenty-eight days after receipt of such order or requisition. Should the Secretary fail to give notice to convene a special general meeting within ten days after delivery to him of the order or requisition, the Board, or the ordinary members who signed the requisition, may themselves give notice of and convene the meeting.
  - (d) A special general meeting shall not transact any business other than that mentioned in the notice convening the meeting.
23. A general meeting shall be convened by the Secretary by notice in writing posted to every ordinary member and the Parent at his or its registered address, not less than fourteen clear days before the date of the meeting, specifying whether the meeting is an annual or special general meeting, stating the time, date and place thereof and the business for which it is convened. The Board may direct the Secretary to include with the notice or send separately to ordinary members and the Parent in advance of the general meeting any relevant written reports or papers or annual accounts as specified in the notice as the case may be. The accidental omission to send notice of a general meeting or papers relating to the notice to any ordinary member (other than the Parent), or the non-receipt of notice of a general meeting or papers relating to the notice by any ordinary member (other than the Parent) shall not invalidate the proceedings of that general meeting. Each notice or communication sent by the Association to an ordinary member and the Parent by post, addressed to him at his registered address, shall be deemed to have been duly served forty-eight hours after being posted.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

24. (a) No business shall be transacted at any general meeting of the Association unless a quorum of members is present in person at the time the meeting proceeds to business. The Parent and seven ordinary members or, if the number of ordinary members at any time exceeds seventy ordinary members, one-tenth thereof, including the Parent, shall form a quorum.
- (b) If no quorum is present within half an hour after the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour after the time appointed for the meeting the ordinary members present shall be a quorum.
25. (a) The Chairman of the meeting may with the consent of a majority of the ordinary members present adjourn any meeting but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business not reached or left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
- (b) Every adjourned meeting shall be deemed a continuation of the original meeting and any resolution passed at an adjourned meeting shall for all purposes be treated as having been passed on the date on which it was in fact passed and shall not be deemed to have been passed on any earlier date. It shall not be necessary to give notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
26. (a) At all general meetings of the Association the Chairman of the Board shall preside as Chairman, or if there be no such chairman, or if he be not present, or is unwilling to act, the ordinary members present shall elect a member of the Board present to be the Chairman of the meeting. In the absence of any members of the Board, the ordinary members present shall elect from their number a Chairman of the meeting.

- (b) Should the Chairman appear at a later time during the meeting, the acting Chairman at his discretion may continue in that position but only until the current or particular item on the agenda is disposed of, before vacating the chair for the Chairman.
27. Subject to any special direction contained in any of these rules, or in any Act of Parliament, a resolution put to the vote of a general meeting shall be decided by a simple majority of those voting, either upon show of hands, or by a poll where a poll is agreed or directed. In the case of a poll, votes may be given personally or by a proxy who need not be a member of the Association.
28. At all general meetings of the Association every ordinary member and the Parent present in person shall have one vote upon a show of hands. Where however an appointed proxy is present and so declares, the Chairman shall direct a poll. On a poll every ordinary member and the Parent present in person or by proxy shall have one vote. In the case of an equality of votes the Chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.
29. Unless a poll be demanded, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution on a show of hands has been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry made to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Association shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of, or against, such resolution.
30. (a) A poll may be demanded either before or immediately after a vote by a show of hands, by not less than one-tenth of the ordinary members present at the meeting (in person or by proxy), or may be directed by the Chairman whether pursuant to rule 28 or otherwise. A demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
- (b) If a poll is to take place, it shall be conducted forthwith at the meeting in such manner as the Chairman shall direct. The result of such a poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Association in general meeting.
31. (a) The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in the form shown in the Appendix attached to these rules given under the hand of the appointer or of his attorney duly authorised in writing and shall be deposited at the registered office of the Association not less than two clear days before the date fixed for holding the meeting at which the person named in such instrument is authorised to vote on behalf of the ordinary member so appointing. Any question as to the validity of a proxy shall be determined by the Chairman of the meeting.
- (b) The ordinary member who has appointed a proxy may revoke such proxy in the form shown in the Appendix attached to these rules given under the hand of the appointer or of his attorney duly authorised in writing and shall be deposited at the registered office of the Association not less than one clear day before the date fixed for holding the meeting at which the person named in the instrument appointing the proxy was authorised to vote on behalf of the ordinary member so appointing.
- (c) Only those instruments in the form provided in the Appendix attached to these rules, appointing a proxy, which are properly completed as aforesaid shall be treated as valid. The Chairman shall report to the meeting, the details of those instruments of proxy which are void.
- (d) The Parent shall be deemed to be present in person at any general meeting if it is represented in person by an individual (who need not be a member) who is appointed to act as such in writing signed on behalf of the Parent.

CONDUCT OF GENERAL MEETINGS

32. All speakers shall address the Chair and all ordinary members shall observe order in such instance. No ordinary member shall be allowed to speak more than once on any motion, unless on a point of clarification, until every other ordinary member has had the opportunity to speak on the same issue; they shall then have only the opportunity to speak a second time by permission of the Chairman unless he was the person who raised the point initially and wishes to have a final reply as regards his original position.
33. Amendments to any original motion of business may be made by an ordinary member verbally by addressing the Chair. Amendments shall be taken in order of intimation; one amendment shall be disposed of before another is moved. If the first amendment is carried it becomes itself the question, whereupon any further amendment may be moved.
- 34.1 The time limit for speakers shall be at the discretion of the Chairman.
- 34.2 If any point arises which is not provided for in these rules, the Chairman shall give an opinion on the point. Should his opinion not be accepted by a challenge which has a seconder, the Chairman shall then vacate the Chair and a vote shall be taken and the matter determined by a simple majority.
35. No meeting shall continue for more than two hours beyond the time for which the meeting is called, unless with approval of at least two-thirds of the ordinary members present, after the expiry of that time.
36. Proceedings at any meeting shall not be invalidated by an accidental omission to send notice of the meeting to any member (other than the Parent).

BOARD

  - (a) The Association shall have a Board which shall consist of not less than eight persons nor more than twelve, including the Parent Nominee (if appointed) but excluding persons co-opted to the Board (if any).
  - (b) Only members (and the Parent Nominee (as hereinafter defined)) who have attained eighteen years of age shall be eligible to become Board members.
  - (c) The Board shall include a minimum of three and a maximum of four Tenant Board Members.
  - (d) Notwithstanding any other provision of these rules the Parent is the parent body of the Association and shall be entitled to appoint any number of members of the Board as it may in its sole discretion determine. In addition, the Parent shall at any time be entitled to remove from office any and all members of the Board as it may in its sole discretion determine. Such appointments and removals from office may be made from time to time in writing signed on behalf of the Parent and served on the Association and in each case shall take effect upon the date of lodgement of written notice at the registered office of the Association or such later date as may be specified in the notice.
  - (e) The Parent shall exercise its powers of appointment and removal of any members of the Board in accordance with rule 37 (d) pursuant to and in terms of the Constitutional Partnership Agreement entered into between the Parent and the Association having due regard to the best interests of the Association and the conduct of the Association's business.

- (f) The Parent may from time to time by written notice to the registered office of the Association appoint one person to be a Board member (the "Parent Nominee") and by like notice remove or replace the Parent Nominee and in each case such appointment or removal shall take effect upon the date of lodgement of such written notice at the registered office of the Association or such later date as may be specified in the notice.
  - (g) The Board shall assess annually the skills, knowledge, diversity and objectivity that it needs for its decision making and what is contributed by the Board members by way of annual performance reviews. The Board must satisfy itself that any Board member seeking re-election to the Board after service as a Board member for a continuous period in excess of 9 years can demonstrate his / her continued effectiveness as a Board member.
  - (h) Each Board member shall, in exercising his / her role as a Board member, act in the best interests of the Association, its tenants and will not place any personal or other interests ahead of his / her primary duty to the Association and, in particular, must:
    - (A) seek, in good faith, to ensure that the Association acts in a manner which is accordance with its objects;
    - (B) act with the care and diligence which it is reasonable to expect of a person who is managing the affairs of another person;
    - (C) in circumstances giving rise to the possibility of a conflict of interest between the Association and any other party, to put the interests of the Association before those of the other party and where any other duty prevents him / her from doing so, disclose the conflicting interest to the Association and refrain from participating in any discussions or decisions involving the other Board members with regard to the matter in question; and
    - (D) ensure that the Association complies with any direction, requirement, notice or duty imposed on it by the 2005 Act.
  - (i) The Board shall set and periodically review its policy on payments and benefits. If a person is a member, employee of the Association or serves on the Board or any committee of the Board he / she must not receive any payment or benefit unless it is permitted by the policy. In making any payment or conferring any benefit the Association shall act at all times with transparency, honesty and propriety.
  - (j) If a person serves on the Board or any committee of the Board he / she must not receive any payment or benefit unless it is permitted by the 2005 Act and as set out in the Association's policy referred to in rule 37(i). He / she shall also comply with the requirements of the 2005 Act in respect of any conflict of interest that might arise.
38. (a) The Board may from time to time co-opt for any period expiring not later than the commencement of the next annual general meeting of the Association any suitable persons, whether ordinary members of the Association or not, to serve on the Board and may remove such persons. Co-opted persons may take part in the deliberations of the Board and vote at any meetings thereof, on all matters excepting those directly affecting membership of the Association or the election of its officers. The Board may not co-opt more than three persons at any one time and the attendance of such persons at meetings of the Board shall not count towards determining a quorum as defined under rule 45.

- (b) Subject to the terms of paragraph (a) of this rule, the Board may, in the event of any category of ordinary membership not being fully represented as envisaged by rule 37 (c), co-opt suitable persons from within each category of ordinary membership to achieve full representation on the Board of each category of ordinary membership.

ELECTION OF BOARD MEMBERS

- 39. (a) At the conclusion of the first annual general meeting of the Association after the total ordinary membership of the Association shall have exceeded seven or such greater number as the Association may determine from time to time by resolution in general meeting, all members of the Board for the time being shall retire from office. Without prejudice to paragraph (c) of this rule 39, at the conclusion of every subsequent annual general meeting, one-third or the nearest number of Board members shall retire from office. The Parent Nominee (if appointed) shall not be required to retire at any annual general meeting.
  - (b) Subject to paragraph (c) of this rule 39, a Board member who retires pursuant to the terms of this rule 39 shall be eligible for re-election without nomination.
  - (c) A Board member shall not be in office for more than nine consecutive years unless his appointment is extended by a resolution of the Board for a further three years where the Board determines that the Board member in question possesses skills, knowledge or experience that are necessary or desirable to further the objects of the Association.
- 40. (a) If at any annual general meeting, the Board members offering themselves for re-election together with any other ordinary members of the Association duly nominated for election to the Board do not exceed the number of Board members to be elected, the said Board members and members nominated shall be declared by the Chairman to have been duly re-elected or elected. If the said Board members and members nominated exceed the number of Board members to be elected the general meeting shall elect from amongst them the members to serve on the Board by ballot to be taken at that general meeting in the manner directed by the Chairman. Each ordinary member present in person or proxy shall be entitled to one vote for each vacancy to be filled and shall not give more than one vote to any one candidate.
  - (b) Nominations for the Board shall be in writing on the form prescribed from time to time by the Board, state the full name, address and occupation of the ordinary member nominated, be signed by the ordinary member making the nomination and by the ordinary member seconding the nomination, contain a signed statement on the form prescribed from time to time by the Board by the ordinary member nominated of his willingness to be elected, and be delivered to the Secretary or left at the registered office not later than seven days before the date appointed for the annual general meeting or meeting called for the purpose of rule 42.
- 41. A casual vacancy occurring in the Board after the last annual general meeting of the Association may be filled by the Board and that person shall be a Board member for the purpose of these rules until the next annual general meeting of the Association, and will represent the membership category previously represented by the member who has vacated office.
- 42.1 A Board member (other than any Parent Nominee) may be removed from office by a resolution carried by a majority of the ordinary members present in person or proxy and voting at a special general meeting which may proceed to fill the vacancy. If the vacancy is not filled at the meeting, it may be filled by the Board unless otherwise directed by the meeting and the person chosen will represent the ordinary membership category previously represented by the Board member who has been removed from office.

42.2 A Board member (other than any Parent Nominee) must leave the Board if two-thirds of the remaining Board members vote in favour of this at a special meeting of the Board convened for the purpose. The vote to ask a Board member to leave the Board must relate to one of the following issues:-

42.2.1 failure to perform to the published standards laid down by the Scottish Federation of Housing Associations and/or The Scottish Housing Regulator adopted and operated by the Association, and/or

42.2.2 failure to sign or failure to comply with the Association's code of governance for Board members, and/or

42.2.3 a serious breach of these rules or the Association's standing orders or other policy requirements;

43. (a) An ordinary member shall not be eligible for election or re-election to the Board, and a Board member shall be deemed to have vacated his office, if:-

(i) he is apparently insolvent within the meaning of the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985, or

(ii) he is a party to an arrangement with his creditors, or

(iii) he is in the opinion of a qualified physician unable to attend Board meetings for the next 12 months due to incapacity by physical or mental illness, or

(iv) he is imprisoned by due process of law for a period exceeding one month or is or has been convicted of a crime of dishonesty for which the rehabilitation period, in terms of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and any amendment thereto or re-enactment thereof, has not expired or for which rehabilitation is excluded in terms of the said Act, or

(v) he is a party to any legal proceedings in any court of law by or against the Association; or

(vi) he is or becomes disqualified from being a charity trustee pursuant to Section 69 of the 2005 Act or has been suspended or removed as a charity trustee pursuant to Section 34 of the 2005 Act or has been the subject of any direction issued by OSCR pursuant to Section 28 and/or Section 31 of the 2005 Act; or

(vii) he has been removed or suspended from a position of management or control of a charity under the provisions of the Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) (Scotland) Act 1990 or the 2005 Act; or

(viii) he has been removed from the office of charity trustee or trustee for a charity by an order made by the Charity Commissioners for England and Wales or by Her Majesty's High Court of Justice in England on the grounds of any misconduct in the administration of the charity for which he was responsible or to which he was privy, or which his conduct contributed to or facilitated; or

- (ix) a disqualification order or disqualification undertaking has been made against him under the Company Directors' Disqualification Act 1986 or the Company Directors Disqualification (Northern Ireland) Order 2002 (which relate to the power of a Court to prevent someone from being a director, liquidator or administrator of a company or a receiver or manager of company property or being involved in the promotion, formation or management of a company); or
  - (x) he has been removed from the board of another registered social landlord within the previous five years; or
  - (xi) he has resigned from the Board in the previous five years in circumstances where the resignation was submitted after the date of his receipt of notice of a special meeting of the Board convened to consider a resolution for his removal from the Board in terms of rules 44.4 or 44.5 within the previous five years; or
  - (xii) he has been removed from the Board in the previous five years.
- (b) A Board member shall cease to be a member of the Board if he resigns his office by notice in writing to the Secretary, ceases to be an ordinary member of the Association for any reason, or in the case of a person who is a representative of an organisation, if the organisation revokes that person's appointment as its representative, or absents himself for four consecutive meetings of the Board without special leave of absence being previously granted by the Board.
44. (a) Any Board member or person co-opted to the Board or any committee having an interest, other than a financial interest, or any conflict or duality of interest, in any contract or other transaction about to be discussed at a meeting shall disclose the nature of his interest to the Board and shall not (unless requested so to do by the other members of the Board) remain during its discussion of the matter nor vote upon the matter and if by inadvertence he does so remain and vote, his vote shall not be counted.
- (b) Any Board member or co-opted person who fails to disclose any interest he is required to disclose under (a) above shall vacate his office if required to do so by a majority of the remaining members of the Board at a Board meeting specially convened for that purpose.

PROCEEDINGS OF BOARD

45. Ordinary meetings of the Board shall be held at such times and places as the Board shall from time to time decide but not less than six meetings shall be held in each calendar year. Four Board members including (if appointed) the Parent Nominee (other than where the Parent Nominee has presented his apologies in writing in advance of the meeting) or such greater number as the Board shall determine shall form a quorum.
46. Notwithstanding any vacancies on the Board the remaining Board members may continue to act, but if at any time the number of Board members falls below seven the Board may act by a majority of its remaining members for a maximum period of two months. If at the end of that period the Board has not filled such vacancies to make up the membership to seven the only power which the Board may thereafter exercise shall be that of filling such vacancies as may be required to bring the number of members of the Board up to seven.
47. (a) The members of the Board shall, at their first meeting after registration of the Association and subsequently at a specially convened meeting immediately following each annual general meeting, elect a Chairman from their own number to hold office until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting, unless he shall cease in the meantime to be a Board member. He shall provided his appointment is approved in writing by the Parent be the Chairman of the Association and shall be removable from the office of Chairman only by a vote of two-thirds of those members of the Board present at a special meeting called for that purpose. If at any meeting of the Board the Chairman is absent or unwilling to act the members of the Board present shall elect one of their number to be Chairman for the meeting. In any case of an equality of votes the Chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

- (b) The Chairman is responsible for the leadership of the Board and ensuring its effectiveness in all aspects of the Board's role and to ensure that the Board properly discharges its responsibilities as required by law and these rules. The Chairman will be delegated such powers as is required to allow the Chairman to properly discharge the responsibilities of the office. Among the responsibilities of the Chairperson are that:
  - (i) the Board works effectively with the senior staff;
  - (ii) an overview of business of the Association is maintained;
  - (iii) the agenda for each meeting is set;
  - (iv) meetings are conducted effectively;
  - (v) minutes are approved and decisions and actions arising from meetings are implemented;
  - (vi) the code of conduct for Board members and other relevant policies and procedures affecting the governance of the Association are complied with;
  - (vii) where necessary, decisions are made under delegated authority for the effective operation of the Association between meetings;
  - (viii) the Board monitors the use of delegated powers;
  - (ix) the Board receives professional advice when it is needed;
  - (x) the Association is represented at external events appropriately;
  - (xi) appraisal of the performance of Board members is undertaken, and that the senior staff officer's appraisal is carried out in accordance with the agreed policies and procedures of the Association; and
  - (xii) the training requirements of Board members, and the recruitment and induction of new Board members is undertaken.
- (c) The Chairman may resign his office by notice in writing to the Secretary and shall vacate his office if for any reason he is deemed to have vacated his office as a Board member or he ceases to be a member of the Board and in any of these events the Board shall forthwith elect one of their number to be Chairman in his place. Any such appointment as Chairman shall be subject to the written approval of the Parent.
- (d) The Chairman may be re-elected but may not hold office continuously for more than 5 consecutive annual general meetings. On the expiry of 5 continuous terms of office, the retiring Chairman shall not be eligible for election as Chairman during the ensuing twelve months.

48. A special meeting of the Board may be called by a notice in writing given to the Secretary by the Chairman of the Board, or by two Board members, specifying the business to be transacted. The Secretary shall send a copy of the notice to all Board members and persons co-opted to the Board within three days of receiving it, and the meeting shall be held at the ordinary place for meetings of the Board not earlier than ten days and not later than fourteen days after the receipt by the Secretary of the notice. No other business shall be done at the meeting than the business named in the notice. Should the Secretary fail to convene the special meeting as prescribed above, the Chairman of the Board or the Board members who have given the notice may call the meeting. If the Chairman or the two Board members call the meeting the notice shall be sent to all Board members and persons co-opted to the Board not less than seven days before the date of the meeting.

CONDUCT OF BOARD MEETINGS

49. All speakers shall address the Chair and all members shall observe order in such instance. The selection of, and time limit for speakers shall be at the discretion of the Chairman.
50. If any point arises which is not provided for in these rules, the Chairman shall give a ruling on the point and his decision shall be final.
51. Notice of ordinary meetings of the Board shall be sent to Board members not less than seven days before the date of the meeting.
52. All matters of business for the agenda shall be in the hands of the Secretary not later than 4pm on the day preceding that on which the Notice of Meeting is issued, unless in relation to a matter of urgency and accepted by the majority of the meeting as such, but where urgency is known or anticipated before a meeting, notice in writing of the urgent business of the motion shall be transmitted to the Secretary as early as practicable before the meeting. The term "urgency" shall be interpreted by the Chairman who shall have due regard to the reasonable intent of this rule.
53. Proceedings at any meeting shall not be invalidated by any accidental omission to send notice of the meeting to any Board member other than any Parent Nominee.

POWERS OF BOARD OF MANAGEMENT

54. The business of the Association shall be conducted by the Board which may exercise all such powers as may be exercised by the Association and are not by these rules or by statute required to be exercised by the Association in general meeting. In conducting the business of the Association each Board member shall be bound by these rules. The Board is responsible for the leadership, strategic direction and control of the Association with the aim of achieving good outcomes for its tenants in accordance with the regulatory standards and guidance issued by the Scottish Housing Regulator from time to time. Any person acting in good faith and without prior notice shall not be concerned to see or inquire whether the powers of the Board have been restricted by any other regulations so made unless he had prior knowledge of the existence of some such restriction. The Board shall in all things act for and in the name of the Association.
55. Without prejudice to its general powers conferred by these rules the Board may exercise the following powers:-
  - (a) to purchase, sell, feu, build upon, lease or excamb any land, including the agreeing or accepting of any liability for any expenses whatsoever in connection therewith and to enter into any contracts and settle the terms thereof;
  - (b) to settle the terms of engagement and remuneration of the Secretary or other officers, other than members of the Board, appointed under rule 59 and of any consultant, agent or employee employed in connection with the construction, improvement or management of dwellings provided or to be provided or managed or to be managed by the Association and act as an employer for anyone employed by the Association;
  - (c) to grant heritable securities over any land and floating charges over the whole or any part of the undertaking property and assets of the Association both present and future including the agreeing or accepting of any liability for any expenses whatsoever in connection therewith;

- (d) to determine from time to time the terms and conditions upon which the property of the Association is to be let, managed or otherwise disposed of, and to make, revoke, and alter and at all time enforce as it thinks fit such terms and conditions;
  - (e) to appoint and remove all solicitors, architects, surveyors and other consultants, managing agents and employees of every description;
  - (f) to reimburse such out of pocket expenses including travelling expenses as are wholly necessary and incurred by a Board member or person co-opted to the Board or a committee in the execution of his duties;
  - (g) to compromise, settle, conduct, enforce or resist either in a Court of Law or by arbitration any suit, debt, liability or claim by or against the Association;
  - (h) to affiliate the Association to the Scottish Federation of Housing Associations and pay an appropriate fee thereto and to subscribe to any other organisation having objects similar to the objects of the Association
56. The Board may delegate any of its powers to committees consisting of such Board members and other persons as it thinks fit or to staff or Office Bearers of the Association. Committees, staff and Office Bearers shall in the functions entrusted to them conform to the instructions given to them in writing by the Board. The meetings and proceedings of committees shall be governed by the provisions in these rules for regulating the meetings and proceedings of the Board so far as they are applicable and by any other regulations which may be imposed on it by the Board and any decision made by a committee shall be reported to the next meeting of the Board. Taken as a fraction of the number of Board members who compose a committee, co-opted persons shall not comprise more than one third of other persons who shall serve on the committee. Co-optees shall not form part of any quorum required for the meeting but may vote upon all matters except those directly affecting membership of the Association or election of its officers. Any decision of a committee must be reported to the next Board meeting.
57. All acts done in good faith by any meeting of the Board or of any committee shall, notwithstanding that it shall be afterwards discovered that there was any defect in the appointment of any Board member or Board members or that any one or more of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every Board member had been duly appointed and was duly qualified to serve.
58. A resolution in writing signed by all Board members or by all the Board members of a committee shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Board or committee duly called and constituted.

SECRETARY AND OTHER OFFICERS

59. (a) The Association shall have a Secretary and such other officers as the Board may from time to time determine who shall be appointed and may be removed by the Board. The Secretary may be an employee of the Association.
- (b) In circumstances where the Secretary is unavailable to carry out his functions the Board or in the case of emergency the Chairman may appoint any officer or employee to carry out the Secretary's functions until such time as the Secretary is able or available to recommence his duties.

- (c) The Secretary and the other officers, if any, shall act under the superintendence, control and direction of the Board, and without prejudice thereto the Secretary shall in particular:-
- (i) summon and attend all general meetings of the Association and all meetings of the Board and keep the minutes referred to in rule 62;
  - (ii) as regards (i) above, issue the notice together with any relevant reports or papers;
  - (iii) prepare and send all returns required to be made to the Financial Conduct Authority and to The Scottish Housing Regulator;
  - (iv) ensuring compliance with these rules;
  - (v) prepare and send all the necessary reports to the Financial Conduct Authority; The Scottish Housing Regulator; and OSCR; and
  - (vi) unless the Board otherwise direct, keep the register of members and other registers required to be kept by these rules, have charge of the seal of the Association, keep all the books of accounts and receive all contributions and other payments due to the Association and pay over the amount so received as the Board direct.
- (d) The Secretary or other officer shall produce or give up all books, registers, documents and property of the Association in his possession whenever required so to do by a resolution of the Board or of a general meeting.

SECURITY BY OFFICERS

60. The Board shall take out and continue a fidelity guarantee insurance in respect of all officers and employees having receipt or charge of money or alternatively shall require such officers and employees to become bound either with or without a surety as the Board determine in a bond according to one of the forms set out in Schedule 4 of the 1965 Act, or to give the security of a guarantee society in such sum as the Board direct conditioned for his rendering a just and true account of all monies received by him on account of the Association as a general meeting or the Board require him to do and for the payment by him of all sums due from him to the Association.
61. No officer shall be liable for any loss suffered by the Association through the execution of the duties of his office, unless the loss be the consequence of his gross negligence or his dishonesty and in the latter case the Association shall inform the police or other appropriate authority and shall seek to recover any loss it has suffered.

MINUTES, SEAL, REGISTERS AND BOOKS

62. Minutes of every general meeting and of every meeting of the Board and any committee shall be kept and such minutes shall be read at the next of such meetings respectively and signed by the Chairman of the meeting at which they are so read and all minutes so signed shall be conclusive evidence of any fact stated therein as between the Association and every ordinary member.

63. The Association shall execute deeds and documents in accordance with the provisions of the Requirements of Writing (Scotland) Act 1995 and record the execution in the register. The use of a common seal is not required. The Association may have a seal which the Secretary must keep in a secure place unless the Board decides that someone else should look after it. The seal must only be used if the Board decides this. When the seal is used, the deed or document must be signed by the Secretary or a Board member or another person duly authorised to subscribe the deed or document on the Association's behalf and recorded in the register.
64. The Association shall keep as its registered office:-
- (a) a register of members in which shall be entered the following particulars -
    - (i) the names and addresses of the ordinary members and Parent Member;
    - (ii) a statement of the Ordinary Shares and Parent Share held by members and the amount paid therefor;
    - (iii) a statement of other property in the Association whether in loans or loan stock held by each member;
    - (iv) the date when each person was entered into the register as a member and the date at which any person ceased to be a member; and
    - (v) the names and addresses of the officers of the Association with the offices held by them respectively, and the dates on which they assumed and vacated once;
  - (b) a duplicate register of members in which shall be entered all the particulars in the original register of members other than those mentioned in paragraphs (a) (ii) and (iii) above; and the inclusion or omission of the name of any person from the original register of members shall, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, be conclusive that such person is or is not a member of the Association;
  - (c) a register of loan stock and of the holders thereof;
  - (d) a register in which shall be entered particulars of all loans and charges on land of the Association.
65. The registered name of the Association shall be kept painted or affixed in a conspicuous position in letters easily legible on the outside of every office or place in which the business of the Association is carried on, and the registered name of the Association shall be engraved in legible characters on its seal (if any) and shall be mentioned in legible characters in all business letters of the Association, notices, advertisements and other official publications of the Association and in all bills of exchange, promissory notes, endorsements, cheques and orders for money or goods, purporting to be signed by or on behalf of the Association and in all bills, invoices, receipts and letters of credit of the Association.
66. All books of account, registers, securities and documents of the Association shall be kept at the registered office or such other place and in such manner and with such provision for their security as the Board shall from time to time determine.
67. At the last meeting of the Board before the annual general meeting the Secretary shall to the extent within his knowledge confirm in writing to the Board that all the requirements of rules 62-66 have been complied with or if they have not been complied with the Secretary shall report in writing to the Board the reasons for such non-compliance. The confirmation or report required by this rule shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

ACCOUNTS

68. The Association shall keep proper books of account with respect to its transactions and to its assets and liabilities in accordance with sections 1 and 2 of the 1968 Act, and shall establish and maintain a satisfactory systems of control of its books of account, its cash holdings and all its receipts and remittances.
69. The Board shall submit the Association's accounts and balance sheet for audit to the Association's auditor and the auditor shall in accordance with section 9 of the 1968 Act and paragraphs 69(1) and (2) of Part 6 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2010, make a report to the Association on the accounts examined by him and on the revenue account or accounts and the balance sheet for the year of account in respect of which he is appointed.
70. The Association shall furnish to The Scottish Housing Regulator and the Financial Conduct Authority a copy of its accounts and auditor's report within six months of the end of the period to which they relate.

APPOINTMENT AND DUTIES OF AUDITOR

71.
  - (a) There shall be appointed in each year of account a qualified auditor to audit the Association's accounts and balance sheet for that year. In this rule "qualified auditor" means a person who is a qualified auditor under section 7 of the 1968 Act.
  - (b) None of the following persons shall be appointed or re-appointed as auditor of the Association:-
    - (i) an officer or servant of the Association;
    - (ii) a person who is a partner of or in the employment of or who employs an officer, servant or agent of the Association;
  - (c) Nothing in this rule shall prevent the appointment as auditor of the Association of a Scottish firm provided none of the partners of the firm is ineligible for appointment as auditor of the Association by virtue of any of the provisions of this rule.
72.
  - (a) Save as provided in paragraph (b) of this rule every appointment of an auditor shall be made by resolution of a general meeting of the Association.
  - (b) The first appointment of an auditor shall be made within three months of the registration of the Association by the Financial Conduct Authority and shall be made by the Board if no general meeting of the Association is held within that time. The Board may appoint an auditor to fill any casual vacancy occurring between general meetings of the Association. The Board shall take such steps as it considers necessary to ensure the continuing independence of the Association's auditor, including the periodic review of the need for audit rotation. The Association must send a copy of its accounts and the auditor's report to The Scottish Housing Regulator within six months of the end of the period to which they relate.
  - (a) An auditor appointed to audit the accounts and balance sheet of the Association for the preceding year of account (whether by a general meeting or by the Board) shall be re-appointed as auditor of the Association for the current year of account (whether or not any resolution expressly reappointing him has been passed) unless:-

- (i) a resolution has been passed at a general meeting of the Association appointing somebody instead of him or providing expressly that he shall not be re-appointed; or
- (ii) he has given to the Association notice in writing of his unwillingness to be re-appointed; or
- (iii) he is not a qualified auditor or is a person mentioned in rule 71(b); or
- (iv) he has ceased to act as auditor to the Association by reason of incapacity; or
- (v) he is no longer capable of acting as auditor to the Association.

Provided that a retiring auditor shall not be automatically re-appointed if notice of an intended resolution to appoint another person in his place has been given in accordance with paragraph (b) of this rule and the resolution cannot be proceeded with because of the death or incapacity of that other person or because that other person is not a qualified auditor or is a person mentioned in rule 71 (b).

  - (i) A resolution at a general meeting of the Association appointing another person as auditor in place of a retiring auditor or providing expressly that a retiring qualified auditor shall not be re-appointed shall not be effective unless notice of the intention to move it has been given to the Association not less than twenty-eight days before the meeting at which it is to be moved.
  - (ii) Where such proper notice has been given the Association shall forthwith send a copy to the retiring auditor, and if it is practicable to do so, shall give notice to its members of the intended resolution at the same time and in the same manner as it gives notice in accordance with these rules of the meeting at which the resolution is to be moved or, if that is not practicable, by advertisement not less than fourteen days before the said meeting in a newspaper circulating in the area in which the Association conducts its business.
  - (iii) Where, under the provisions of Section 6(6) of the 1968 Act, the retiring auditor makes representations to the Association or notifies the Association that he intends to make representations with respect to the intended resolution the Association shall notify its members in accordance with the requirements of section 6(7) of the 1968 Act.

ANNUAL RETURNS AND BALANCE SHEET

74. Every year not later than the date prescribed in the 1965 Act or where the return is made up to a date allowed by the Financial Conduct Authority not later than 3 months after such date the Secretary shall send to the Financial Conduct Authority the annual return in the form prescribed by the Financial Conduct Authority relating to its affairs for the period required by the 1965 Act to be included in the return together with:-
- (i) a copy of the report of the auditor on the Association's accounts for the period included in the return; and
  - (ii) a copy of each balance sheet made during that period and of the report of the auditor on that balance sheet.
75. The Association shall supply free of charge to every member or person interested in the funds of the Association on his application a copy of the last annual return of the Association together with a copy of the report of the auditor on the accounts and balance sheet contained in the return.

76. The Association shall keep a copy of the last balance sheet for the time being together with the report made thereon by the auditor always hung up in a conspicuous place at its registered office.
77. The Association shall, upon receipt of the form of annual return from The Scottish Housing Regulator, duly complete the form and send it to The Scottish Housing Regulator within the period which The Scottish Housing Regulator may direct.

PROFITS

78. (a) The profits of the Association shall not be distributed either directly or indirectly in any way whatsoever among members of the Association.
- (b) An annual general meeting may out of the net profits:-
- (i) set aside to reserve such amount (not exceeding the amount recommended by the Board) as it may direct which may be applied in or towards carrying out the objects of the Association; and
  - (ii) if any amount has been set aside by the annual general meeting to reserve as aforesaid, allocate to a common fund out of any balance remaining such amount (not exceeding the amount recommended by the Board) as it may direct which may be used in the furtherance of the Association's objects and purposes for such charitable purposes or for the purposes of a voluntary organisation being concerned or connected with the provision of housing or associated amenities or services as the Board shall from time to time determine.
- (c) Any part of the profits not set aside or allocated in accordance with the preceding paragraph shall be carried forward.

INVESTMENT

79. The funds of the Association may with the authority of the Board be invested as permitted by section 31 of the 1965 Act but may not be invested otherwise, subject always to the requirement that the Association shall comply with the regulatory standards and the regulatory guidance issued by The Scottish Housing Regulator from time to time.

INSPECTION OF BOOKS

80. Any member or person having an interest in the funds of the Association shall be allowed to inspect his own account and the books containing the names of the members, including all particulars in the duplicate register of members, at all reasonable hours at the registered office of the Association or at any place where the same are kept, subject to such conditions as to the time and manner of such inspection as may be made from time to time by the Board.

DISPUTES

81. Every dispute between a member or any person aggrieved who has not for more than six months ceased to be a member, or any person claiming through any such member or person aggrieved, or any person claiming under the rules of the Association and any procedures determined by the Board from time to time, and the Association or an officer thereof, shall be referred to the Sheriff within whose jurisdiction the registered office of the Association is situated and his decision shall be binding and conclusive on all parties without appeal.

STATUTORY APPLICATION TO THE FINANCIAL CONDUCT AUTHORITY

82. Any ten ordinary members each of whom has been an ordinary member of the Association for not less than twelve months immediately preceding the date of the application may apply to the Financial Conduct Authority in the form prescribed by Treasury Regulations to appoint an accountant or actuary to inspect the books of the Association and to report thereon on payment to the Financial Conduct Authority of the costs required.
83. One-tenth of the whole number of ordinary members, or, if the number shall at any one time exceed one thousand, one hundred ordinary members, may apply to the Financial Conduct Authority in the form prescribed by Treasury Regulations:-
- (a) for the appointment of an inspector or inspectors to examine into the affairs of the Association and to report thereon; or
  - (b) for the calling of a special general meeting of the Association.

COPIES OF RULES TO BE SUPPLIED

84. The Secretary shall deliver a copy of the rules of the Association to every person on admission to membership of the Association and to any person on demand on payment of such sum not exceeding ten pence as the Board may determine.

PROCEEDINGS ON DEATH OF A MEMBER

85. Upon claim being made by the personal representative of a deceased ordinary member, or the trustee in bankruptcy of a bankrupt ordinary member, to any property in the Association belonging to the deceased or bankrupt member, the Board shall transfer or pay such property to which the personal representative or trustee in bankruptcy has become entitled as the personal representative or trustee in bankruptcy may direct them.

NOMINATIONS

86. An ordinary member may, in accordance with the 1965 Act, nominate any person or persons to whom (subject to the provisions of the 1965 Act as to amount and the persons to whom a valid nomination may be made) any of his property in the Association at the time of his death shall be transferred. On receiving satisfactory proof of death of an ordinary member who has made a nomination, the Board shall, if and to the extent that the nomination is valid under the said Act, either transfer or pay in accordance with the Act the full value of the property comprised in the nomination to the person entitled thereunder.

DISSOLUTION

87. Subject to the prior written consent of the Parent, the Association may be dissolved:-
- (a) by an order or resolution to wind up the Association as set out in the Insolvency Act 1986 and / or section 105 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2010;

- (b) by the consent of three-quarters of the members of the Association sign an instrument of dissolution in the form prescribed by the Financial Conduct Authority.
- 88. The prior approval of OSCR is required before the Association can be dissolved. The Association must submit its application for approval to OSCR not less than 42 days before the date on which the Association intends to dissolve.
- 89. If any property remains after the Association has paid its debts, this property will be transferred to such other charitable registered social landlord as determined by The Scottish Housing Regulator.

CHANGING THE RULES

- 90. Any changes to these rules shall require the prior written consent of the Parent and subject to such consent being obtained by the Board, these rules may be changed or new rules introduced if:
  - 90.1 three-quarters of the votes at a special general meeting are in favour of the change(s), deletion(s), or introduction of new rules; and
  - 90.2 The Scottish Housing Regulator has approved the change(s) deletion(s) or introduction of new rules.
  - 90.3 The Association shall apply to the Financial Conduct Authority to register every rule change as set out in Treasury regulations. Each member must receive a copy of the change. No change is valid until it has been registered by the Financial Conduct Authority.
